

Diaspora Youth Day Camp

Homecoming 2012

August 7th – 9th

DIASPORA YOUTH DAY CAMP

Date: August 7th -9th, 2012

Time: 9am-5pm

Age Range: 11-18 years old

Venue: St. Rose Modern Secondary, St. John, Grenada

Total target for the camp: 150 persons

Registration Fee: EC $50.00

Our Promise

This camp aims to be one with a difference. We have planned an educating, exciting and suspense-filled three (3) days, with enough motivation to keep us discussing, interacting and sharing. The most interesting aspect of hosting such an event is to offer creative and thoroughly enjoyable programmes and activities for our youth.

We promise to fulfil - or surpass – your expectations, applying our experience and resources to the events planned to make the youth camp as successful as possible. The programme we developed will be rewarding, uplifting and self-motivating to every participant. Finally, we promise to have FUN!

Mission Statement

It is our mission to ensure that you feel welcome and at home and enjoy what Grenada has to offer. Journey with us as we explore Grenada's History and embrace our rich and vibrant heritage.

Our Vision

The Diaspora Youth Day Camp aims to strengthen our Human Resource Capacity through well-rounded training and seminars, striving for the enhancement of youth development programmes for young Grenadians.

Objective

- To develop a connection between the Diaspora and Grenadian youths through activities focused on nation building.
- To understand the individualised needs and goals of young people and develop programmes that would capture the creativity and innovation of their young minds through: Communication; Interaction; Sharing; and Learning.
